

Native American Rights Fund Benefit

Commemorating 35 years of Fighting for Indian Rights

Joanne Shenandoah, Native performer & composer, will be the featured artist.

Shenandoah (Wolf Clan, Oneida Nation) has drawn upon her rich heritage in establishing a reputation as one of America's foremost Native recording artists.

- Lakota Drum Group, Good Feather Singers - featured in this summer's TNT production "Into the West"
- Native American dancers
- $25 General Admission
- $50 Gold Circle Tickets includes dessert reception and meet & greet with Joanne Shenandoah after the show

Native American Rights Fund

Location: The Dairy Center for the Arts
2590 Walnut Street, Boulder, Colorado 80302

Contact the Development Department for tickets: 303.447.8760

Time: 6:00 p.m.

Date: 11/19/05

All Proceeds Benefit Native American Rights Fund

