1-1-22 Tribal Court

(a) The Tribal Court may hear and decide cases and controversies as provided by Tribal law. Final decisions and orders of the Tribal Court are subject to review by the Tribal Court of Appeals when provided in this Code. Failure to legislate in any particular area shall not be deemed a cession of authority to any other government's jurisdiction.

(b) Contempt Power: The Tribal Court shall have the power to punish for contempt in a manner consistent with the laws of the State of Oregon, except that contempt shall be civil only and not punishable by imprisonment.

1-1-23 Criminal Jurisdiction

Nothing in this chapter waives any aspect of the Tribes sovereign immunity or related privileges.

1-1-25 Exclusive and Concurrent Jurisdiction

The jurisdiction of the Tribal Court, as set out in CLUSITC 1-1-23 and 1-1-24, is exclusive except:

(a) As may be provided otherwise by federal statute or the final order of a federal court; or

(b) Where implementation of federal law, by Tribal agreement or otherwise, requires that Tribal Court jurisdiction be concurrent with that of the courts of the State of Oregon, and where Tribal statute expressly sets forth such concurrence.

A Judge of the Tribal Court may be suspended, dismissed or removed for cause by the Tribal Council. No specific grounds for the belief need be alleged. Such motion shall be allowed unless the judge moved against challenges the good faith of the affiant and sets forth the basis of such challenge. In the event of such challenge, a hearing shall be held before a disinterested judge. The burden of proof shall be on the challenging judge to establish that the motion was made in bad faith or for the purposes of delay.

Prior to the issuance of an ex parte order, the counsel or unrepresented party seeking such order must file a written certification with the Court declaring that opposing counsel and any unrepresented party has been contacted, or that a diligent effort has been made to contact said counsel or unrepresented party, to give reasonable notice of:

(d) Emergency Orders. Nothing in this Rule limits the equitable powers of the Court to issue, upon petition, such emergency orders as may be necessary to preserve the status quo or to maintain law and order in the context of a civil case or controversy until the earliest time that the matter may be heard. No emergency or temporary ex parte order shall relieve the party seeking such order of the burden of proof of allegations made in the application or pleading except in those matters where the burden of proof is expressly transferred by Tribal law or by the general rules of law governing the exercise of a court's equitable or extra ordinary powers.

UTTCR 14 Pretrial Conference and Pretrial Memorandum and Order

- (1). All court proceedings shall be conducted in a dignified and respectful manner. All persons addressing the Court shall arise and shall speak in a clear and courteous manner.
- (2). Civility and respect are the keys to behavior in this Tribal Court – that includes everyone: the judge, staff, lawyers and witnesses. If you have any complaints about anyone's civility, including the judge, please bring the matter to the immediate attention of the court by asking for a conference in chambers.

- (3). Keep the trial low-key. It is not a circus, a contest of dramatic ability or an oratorical contest. It should at all times be a quiet, dignified search for the truth.
- (4). Rise when the judge enters and leaves the courtroom.
- (5). Address all remarks to the judge, not to opposing counsel. Argument between attorneys is prohibited.
- (6). Rise when addressing the judge and when making objections.
- (7). Do not exhibit familiarity with witnesses, opposing counsel, or court personnel. Do not use first names for witnesses, parties, opposing counsel or court personnel.
- (8). Do not bring food or beverages into the courtroom, nor allow witnesses to chew gum, etc. Men should not wear hats in court. Caution your witnesses and guests accordingly.
- (9). Stand a respectful distance from the bench.

(b) Promptness

- (1). The judge makes every effort to commence proceedings at the time set. Promptness is expected from counsel and witnesses.

(a) Swearing in Witnesses

All witnesses shall be administered an oath by the judge, clerk or bailiff as follows: "Do you swear (or affirm) to tell the truth in this matter now before you?"

(b).Conduct of Trial

Plaintiff shall begin by making his opening statement setting forth the charge or claim for relief against the defendant. The defendant shall then have the opportunity, unless waived, to make an opening statement of his position. Upon the conclusion of such statement, or if the defendant waives opening statement, upon the conclusion of the plaintiff's opening statement, the plaintiff shall call such witnesses and offer such exhibits as he may see fit. Upon the conclusion of the plaintiff's case, the defendant shall call such witnesses and offer such exhibits as he may see fit. The plaintiff shall, thereafter, in rebuttal, have an opportunity to call such witnesses and offer such evidence as he may see fit to rebut the evidence by the defendant. Both the plaintiff and defendant shall have the right to cross-examine witnesses.

At the close of the case, plaintiff shall have the opportunity to present his closing argument in chief. The defendant shall then have the opportunity to present his closing argument in chief. Upon the close of the defendant's closing argument in chief, the plaintiff shall have the opportunity to present the plaintiff's rebuttal.

(c) Opening Statement

Opening statements shall be confined to what you expect the evidence to show. It is not proper to use the opening statement to argue the case, instruct as to the law, or explain the purpose of an opening statement. Unless the case is unusually complex, the average time should not exceed thirty (30) minutes.

(d) Witnesses

- (1).It is unnecessary to greet or introduce yourself to adverse witnesses. Commence your cross-examination without preliminaries. The right to cross-examine is not a right to examine crossly nor to ask the witness to pass on the credibility of another witness.
- (2). Examine witnesses while seated at counsel table, standing behind counsel table, or at the lectern.
- (3). Refrain from approaching a witness or the bench without leave of court
- (4). Refrain from hovering over a witness, even when permission has been granted for you to approach the witness. Maintain a respectable distance from the witness.
- (5). If you need to point to an exhibit or to use the easel when you ask a question, return to your seat as soon as possible.

- (6) A whiteboard, white paper, chalk, pens, TV and VCR are available. However, if you want a tape recorder or similar equipment, you must furnish it or make arrangements with the courtroom clerk at least one (1) day in advance.
 - (7) Treat witnesses with fairness and consideration. Do not shout at, ridicule or otherwise abuse witnesses.
 - (8) Do not ever, by facial expression or other conduct, exhibit any opinion concerning any witness' testimony. Council will admonish their clients and witnesses about this common occurrence.
 - (9) When court is in session, do not address the reporter. Refrain from asking the reporter to mark testimony. Address all requests for re-reading of questions and answers to the judge.
 - (10) If a witness is on the stand at a recess or adjournment, have the witness on the stand ready to proceed when court is resumed.
 - (11) Do not delay proceedings by writing out witnesses' answers during questioning. Charts and diagrams, where possible, should be prepared in advance, but counsel may use the writing board for opening and close.
 - (12) Where a party has more than one lawyer, only one may conduct the direct or cross-examination of a given witness.
- (e) Objections
- (1). When objecting, state only that you object and briefly specify the ground(s). Do not use objections to make a speech, recapitulate testimony, or to guide the witness.
 - (2). Do not argue an objection until the judge grants permission or requests argument.
 - (3). Give the judge advance notice if you have reason to anticipate that any question of law or evidence is difficult or will provoke an argument.
 - (4). Sidebar or chambers conferences during trial are not to be utilized for discussion of evidentiary issues. Most evidentiary hearings will be conducted at court recesses or, if important enough to justify interruption of the trial, and the matter heard in open court (of course you may ask to approach the bench to request necessary recesses, etc.)

(f) Exhibits

- (1). All exhibits will normally be marked and received in advance – per the court's order, in a manner consistent with Oregon 2012 UTCR 6.080, "Marking Exhibits", or its successor.
- (2). Each counsel is responsible for any exhibits secured from the Clerk. At each noon-time or end-of-the-day adjournment, return all exhibits to the Clerk.
- (3). Exhibits not previously offered at the pretrial conference should be offered in evidence when they become admissible rather than at the end of counsel's case.
- (4). When referring to an exhibit, mention the exhibit number so that the record will be clear.
