

CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION (CLE)

Attorneys admitted to the Montana Bar who attend all segments of the Symposium may count 12.25 hours of Continuing Legal Education credits (no ethics hours). For those who attend a portion of the Symposium, they may claim a lesser amount. Simply fill out the attached affidavit indicating the number of hours attended, and return it to the registration desk before leaving the Symposium.

Attorneys admitted in other states generally must submit the Symposium agenda, written materials, and possibly a completed application form (available from the State Bar Association) to their respective State Bar Associations for accreditation. The total number of hours awarded by the respective states may differ. An application fee may also be required. Please use the same affidavit as a certificate of attendance.

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE

Sponsors: Western States Water Council/Native American Rights Fund

Course Title: Symposium on the Settlement of Indian Reserved Water Rights Claims

Date: August 23-25, 2011

Location: Billings, Montana

In its entirety, this program has been accredited by the Montana Bar for 12.25 CLE credit hours based on 60 minutes of instruction per hour. Of this total, 0 hours are devoted to instruction in ethics.

Name of Attendee: _____ State: _____

Bar #: _____

Sessions attended:

- The Administration's Settlement Policy
 - Negotiations of Indian Water Rights Claims: The Basics
 - Gathering Background Information & the Role of Technicians in Negotiations
 - Identifying Parties & Issues & How Negotiations Bind Larger Groups
- Description of the Crow Settlement
- Settlement Implementation
 - Settlement Legislation: Getting Bills through Congress
 - Congressional Outlook for Funding for Indian Water Rights Settlements
 - Response Panel

-
- I attended the entire course as set forth above.
 - I did not attend the entire course. Sessions attended are indicated above.

Signature

Date