- A. The hearing shall be informal in nature. Concerned parties may present evidence relating to the situation.  - 3. The child may be continued in the child's out-of-home placement and a thirty (30) day hearing will be held.

Section 5. Notice of Initial Hearing

The Court shall make all reasonable efforts to advise the parents, guardian or custodian of the time and place of the initial hearing. The court shall request that the parent, guardian or custodian be present for the hearing. Reasonable efforts shall include personal, telephone and written contacts at their residence, place of employment or other location where the person is known to frequent with regularity. If the court is unable to contact the parent, guardian or custodian, notice shall be given to members of the extended family of the parent, guardian or custodian and/or the extended family of the child.

Section 6. Unresolved Issues

If the problems are not resolved at the initial hearing or the thirty (30) day hearing, the court will set a date for a formal hearing on the issues. Such date will be no later than ninety (90) days after the filing of the child/family protection petition.

CHAPTER 12 NOTIFICATION OF RIGHTS

All parties have a right to be represented by an advocate/attorney at their own expense in all proceedings under this Title, to introduce evidence, to be heard on his or her own behalf, to examine witnesses, and to be informed of possible consequences if the allegations of the petition are found to be true. All parties shall be entitled to advance copies of court documents, including petitions and reports, unless deemed inappropriate by the court.

CHAPTER 13 THIRTY (30) DAY HEARING

Section 1. Purpose

A second hearing will be held within thirty (30) days following the initial hearing. The purpose of this hearing is for the court to reassess whether continuing court intervention is necessary to protect the well-being of the child.

The thirty (30)-day hearing shall be held according to Chapter 11, Section 3, Section 4, Section 5, and Section 6 of this Title.

CHAPTER 14 FORMAL TRIAL ON THE ISSUES

Section 2. Admissibility

The records of the initial hearing and the thirty (30) day hearing shall not be admissible at the formal trial. This shall not be construed to prevent the admissibility of any evidence that was presented at these hearings which would normally be admissible under the court's rules of evidence.

Section 3. Closed Hearing

The general public shall be excluded from the proceedings. Only the parties, their counsel, witnesses, the child's extended family, and other persons determined to be appropriate by the court shall be admitted.

During the hearing, the court shall advise the party(s) of the reason for the hearing and of their basic rights as provided for in Chapter 12 of this Title.

Section 5. Child Witnesses

If the court determines that it is in the best interests of the child and does not violate the rights of a party, the court may allow the child to testify by means of a videotape deposition, closed circuit television or other appropriate method. If the court does allow these methods to be utilized, the court shall specifically set out the reasons for this determination on the record.

Section 6. Burden of Proof

The burden of proof lies with the petitioner. The petitioner must prove that the allegations raised in the child/family protection petition are more likely true than not, that is, by the preponderance of the evidence, and that the best interests of the child will be served by continued court intervention.

Section 7. Outcome of Hearing

The court will either find the allegations of the child/family protection petition to be true or dismiss the child/family protection petition, unless the hearing shall be continued to a date certain to allow for the presentation of further evidence.

Section 8. Return to Home

The court may find the allegations of the child/family protection petition to be true, but that out of home placement is not needed to protect the child. The court may, however, due to unresolved problems in the home, continue court intervention and supervision as appropriate.

Section 9. Grounds for Continuing Removal From the Home

- A. The court may find the allegations of the child/family protection petition to be true and order that the child remain out of the home. The grounds for continuing removal from the home of a parent, guardian or custodian are that:

1. A child has no parent, guardian or custodian available, willing and capable to care for the child.
2. The child has suffered, or is likely to suffer, a physical injury inflicted upon him by other than accidental means, which causes or creates a substantial risk of death, disfigurement or impairment of bodily functions.
3. The child has not been provided with adequate food, clothing, shelter, medical care, education or supervision by his/her parent, guardian or custodian, which is necessary for the child's health and well being.
4. The child has been sexually abused or sexually exploited.
5. The child has committed juvenile offenses as a result of parental pressure, guidance or approval.
6. The child has been emotionally abused or neglected.
7. The child has suffered, or is likely to suffer, emotional damage which causes or creates a substantial risk of impaired development.

Section 10. Court Order for Continuing Removal

Section 11. Return of Child to Parent, Guardian or Custodian

The court may find the allegations of the child/family protection petition to be true and out-of-home placement necessary, but with the accomplishment of specified actions by the parent, guardian or custodian, the child may be returned absent good cause to the contrary. The order of the court will specify actions, and the time frames for such actions, that parents, guardians, or custodians must accomplish before the child is returned. The order will also specify the responsibilities of any support agency or personnel to be involved.

Section 12. Out-Of-Home Placement

The court may find the allegations of the child/family protection team petition to be true and that out-of-home placement continues to be necessary and further that the child may not be returned to the home, absent specific order of this court. The court shall specify what steps the parents shall take to demonstrate their abilities to care for their child, and specify to the parties what factors the court will consider at a subsequent hearing to determine whether or not the child should be returned.

Section 13. Written Order

The court shall specify in writing the facts, grounds, and Title sections upon which it relied to make its decisions.

CHAPTER 15. NOTICE OF FORMAL TRIAL ON THE ISSUES

Section 1. Summons

Section 2. Attachments to Summons

A copy of the child/family protection petition shall be attached to each summons. The court shall also attach a notice to the parent, guardian or custodian which advises them of their rights under Chapter 12 of this Title.

Section 3. Personal Service

If the parties to be served with a summons can be found within the exterior boundaries of the reservation, the summons, a copy of the child/family protection petition and the notice of rights shall be personally upon them at least fifteen (15) court days before the formal trial on the issues.

Section 4. Mail Service

If the parties are within the exterior boundaries of the reservation but cannot be personally served, and if their address is known, the summons, petition and notice of rights may be served by registered mail with a return receipt requested, at least ten (10) days before the formal trial.

Section 5. Notice to Extended Family

If the court cannot accomplish personal or mail service, the court shall attempt to notify the parent, guardian or custodian by contacting members of the extended family of the parent, guardian, custodian, and/or the extended family of the child.

Section 6. Service of Summons

Service of summons may be made under the direction of the court by any person eighteen (18) years of age or older who is not a party to the proceedings.

Section 7. Publication

In a child/family protection case where it appears within the body of the petition or within an accompanying statement that the parent, guardian or custodian is a non-resident of the reservation, or that their name, place of residence or whereabouts is unknown, as well as in all cases where after due personal service or service by registered mail has been unable to be effected, the court shall direct the clerk to publish legal notice in a newspaper, printed in the county or on the reservation, qualified to publish summons once a week for three consecutive weeks with the first publication of the notice to be at least twenty-one (21) days prior to the date fixed for the hearing. Such notice shall be directed to the parent, guardian or custodian if their names are known, or if unknown a phrase to whom it may concern, be used and applied to and be binding upon any such person whose names are unknown. The name of the court, name of the child, the date of the filing of the petition, the date of the hearing, and the object of the proceeding in general terms, shall be set forth. There shall be filed with the clerk an affidavit showing publication of the notice. The publication of the notice shall be paid by the tribe. The publication of the notice shall be deemed equivalent to personal service upon all persons known or unknown who have been designated as provided in this section.

Section 8. Contempt Warning

The summons issued by the court shall conspicuously display the words:

NOTICE, VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER IS SUBJECT TO PROCEEDINGS FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT PURSUANT TO TRIBAL TITLE SECTION . THE COURT MAY FIND THE PARENT, GUARDIAN OR CUSTODIAN IN CONTEMPT FOR FAILURE TO APPEAR AT A COURT HEARING OR FOR FAILURE TO FOLLOW COURT ORDERS.

CHAPTER 16 DEFAULT JUDGMENT

Section 1. When Appropriate

If the parent, guardian or custodian fail to appear for the formal trial, the court may find the parent, guardian or custodian in default, and enter a default order of child/family protection and order necessary intervention and appropriate steps the parents, guardian or custodian must follow to correct the underlined problem.

Section 2. Notice Determination

Prior to finding a parent, guardian, or custodian in default, the court must be satisfied actual notice has been given or that all reasonable possible steps have been taken to provide notice of the formal trial to the parent, guardian, or custodian. The court must also find that the petitioner can prove the elements of the child/family protection petition.

Section 3. Written Order

If the parent, guardian or custodian is found in default, the court shall specify the facts, grounds, and Title sections upon which it relied to make the decision.

CHAPTER 17 SIX (6) MONTH REVIEW

Section 1. Review Requirement

The status of all children subject to a child/family protection Title shall be reviewed by the court at least every six (6) months at a hearing to determine whether court supervision shall continue, except that the first review following a formal trial on the issues shall be held within ninety (90) days of the formal trial on the issues.

Section 2. Return to Home

A child shall be returned home at the review hearing unless the court finds that a reason for removal as set forth in Chapter 14, Section 9 of this Title still exists. The court may, however, due to unresolved problems in the home, continue court intervention and supervision as appropriate.

Section 3. Written Order

- A. If continued court intervention is determined to be necessary, the court shall set forth the following in a written order:
1. What services have been provided or offered to the parent, guardian, or custodian, to help correct the underlying problem(s).
 2. The extent to which the parent, guardian, or custodian has visited or contacted the child, any reason why such visitation and/or contact has been infrequent or not otherwise occurred.
 3. Whether the parent, guardian or custodian is cooperative with the court.
 4. Whether additional services should be offered to the parent, guardian or custodian.
 5. Whether the parent, guardian or custodian should be required to participate in any additional programs to help correct the underlying problem(s).
 6. When the return of the child can be expected.

Section 4. Additional Steps

The court at the review hearing may order that a petition to terminate the parent/child relationship be filed, or that a guardianship petition be filed.

CHAPTER 18 SOCIAL SERVICE REPORT

Section 1. Requirement of a Social Study

To aid the court in its decision, a social study(ies) consisting of a written evaluation of matters relevant to the disposition of the case shall be made by the person or agencies filing the petition.

Section 2. Contents of a Social Study

- A. The social study shall include the following points, and be made available to the court, and the parties as deemed appropriate by the court, three (3) days prior to a child/family protection review hearing:
1. A summary of the problem(s).
 2. What steps, if any, have the parent, guardian, custodian, or social services personnel already taken to correct the problem(s).
 3. What services could be of benefit to the parent, guardian or custodian, but are not available in the community.
 4. A report on how the child is doing in -his/her current placement(s) since the last hearing. If there have been any moves, the report will contain the reason for such moves.

 6. If there have been no contacts with the parent, guardian, custodian or social worker, what efforts have been made to contact such parties.
 7. If there have been no contacts with the parent, guardian, custodian or social worker, what efforts have been made to contact such parties.
 8. An assessment of when the child is expected to return home.
 9. A list of who the extended family members are and a list of contacts, or attempts to contact such family members regarding placement of child.

10. The social services personnel shall develop a case plan and shall make recommendations for the next six (6) months. Such recommendations will include:
 - a. A treatment plan for the parents.
 - b. Future placement of the child.
 - c. What services should be provided for the child, if services are needed.
 - d. Permanency plan

CHAPTER 19 PLACEMENT PREFERENCES

Section 1. Least Restrictive Setting

If a child cannot be returned home, the child shall be placed in the least restrictive setting which most approximates a family and in which his special needs, if any, may be met. The child shall also be placed within reasonable proximity to his home, taking into account any special needs of the child. The placement restrictions set forth in Chapter 9 of this Title shall be followed.

Section 2. Order of Preferences

- A. Whenever appropriate, a child shall be placed in a home with the following characteristics, which shall be given preference in the following order:
 1. Members of the extended family.
 2. An Indian family of the same tribe as the child.
 3. People who have a relationship with the child, but who are not related to the child.
 4. An Indian family.
 5. Any other family which can provide a suitable home for such a child.

CHAPTER 20 EMANCIPATION

A child over the age of sixteen (16) may petition the court for emancipation. The court shall grant such status when the child proves to the court that the child is capable of functioning as an independent and responsible member of the community.

CHAPTER 21 AUTHORIZATION OF MEDICAL TREATMENT

Section 1. Unavailability of Parent, Guardian or Custodian

- A. At any time whether or not a child is under the authority of the court, the court may authorize medical or surgical care for a child when:
1. A parent, legal guardian or custodian is not immediately available and cannot be found after reasonable effort in the circumstances of the case, or;
- B. Life Endangerment

A physician informs the court orally or in writing that in his professional opinion, the life of the child would be greatly endangered without certain treatment and the parent, guardian or other custodian refuses or fails to consent. If time allows in a situation of this type, the court shall cause every effort to be made to grant the parent(s), guardian, or custodian an immediate informal hearing, but this hearing shall not be allowed to further jeopardize the child's life.

In making its order the court shall give due consideration to any treatment being given the child by prayer through spiritual means alone or through other methods approved by tribal customs or traditions or religions, if the child or his parent, guardian or legal custodian are adherents of a bona fide religious denomination that relies exclusively on this form of treatment in lieu of medical treatment, or practices in fact the tribal customs or traditions or religion upon which is relied for such treatment of the child.

After entering any authorization under this section, the court shall reduce the circumstances, finding and authorization in writing and enter it in the records of the court and shall cause a copy of the authorization to be given to the physician or hospital, or both, that was involved.

Oral authorization by the court is sufficient for care or treatment to be given and shall be accepted by any physician or hospital. No physician or hospital nor any nurse, technician or other person under the direction of such physician or hospital shall be subject to criminal or civil liability in the court for performance of care or treatment in reliance on the court's authorization, and any function performed there under shall be regarded as if it were performed with the child's and the parent's authorization.

CHAPTER 22 FOSTER HOME LICENSING PROCEDURES

Section 1. Inspection and Licensing Procedures:

- A. The tribal council shall appoint one or more member(s) of the tribe as the foster care and adoption specialists. The foster home inspector shall examine homes of tribal members and others who reside both on the reservation and within a seventy-five (75) mile radius of the reservation. The foster home inspector shall submit a recommendation to the tribal council which shall act upon said recommendation within thirty (30) days, and, if no action is taken, the recommendation of the foster home inspector shall be implemented.
- B. Except under exceptional circumstances, or in order to preserve a family unit, no foster home may accept more than four (4) foster placements.
- C. Any license issued by the foster home inspector shall apply only to the residence(s) where the family is living at the time application for a license is made, and a permanent change of residence automatically terminates the license. The foster care parents are required to notify the foster care inspector whenever a change of residence is contemplated.
- D. The foster care parents must also notify the foster care inspector whenever a change in the household occurs. For example, if one of the foster care parents is convicted or is accused of a major crime or if one of the foster parents moves out of the residence, or if any other person moves into the residence, the foster care inspector must be informed within forty-eight (48) hours.

Section 2. Foster Home Requirements

- A. The home shall be constructed, arranged and maintained so as to provide for the health and safety of all occupants. The foster care inspector may, upon twenty-four (24) hours' notice, inspect a foster care dwelling at any time.
- B. Heating, ventilation, and light shall be sufficient to provide a comfortable, airy atmosphere. Furnishings and housekeeping shall be adequate to protect the health and comfort of the foster child.
- C. Comfortable beds shall be provided for all members of the family. Sleeping rooms must provide adequate opportunities for rest. All sleeping rooms must have a window of a type that may be opened readily and may be used for evacuation in case of fire.
- D. Play space shall be available and free from hazards which might be dangerous to the life or health of this child.

Section 3. The Foster Family:

- A. All members of the household must be in such physical and mental health as will not adversely effect either the health of the child or the quality and manner of his care.

- B. Members of the foster family shall be of good character and habits. They must never have been convicted of a sex offense and may not have any felony convictions within the last three (3) years. Exceptions concerning non-sexual felony convictions can be made providing adequate information is provided indicating that a change of character has occurred.
- C. The person in charge of the foster home shall be of suitable temperament to care for the children, shall understand the special needs of the child as an Indian person and shall be capable of bringing the child up as an Indian person who is well adjusted and able to get along both within the tribal community and in the surrounding non-Indian community as well.
- D. Foster parents shall be responsible, mature individuals who are, in the view of most community members, of good character. Foster parents must be at least twenty-one (21) years old (unless a member of the child's extended family), but there is no upper age level provided the foster parent has the physical and emotional stamina to deal with the care and guardianship of a foster child. The foster parent must be willing, when necessary, to cooperate with the biological parents and must be willing to help the family re-establish the necessary family ties.
- E. A foster home does not necessarily have to have both a male and female foster parent. The foster care inspector may, at his discretion, certify a foster home with a single foster parent provided that foster parent displays the outstanding qualities necessary to raise a foster child.
- F. The foster parents must have an income sufficient to care for all individuals in the foster home. The foster care inspector can take into account the state stipend when determining the financial ability of the foster care parents.
- G. Any time a pre-school foster child is placed in a foster home there must be at least one (1) foster parent in full time attendance. For school age children the foster parent must show the arrangements which will be made for those periods of time when both foster parents are employed. Infants and young children shall never be left alone without competent supervision.
- H. Without specific approval by the tribal council, a foster home shall not be licensed whenever any member of the family is mentally ill or on convalescent status from a mental hospital or is on parole or probation or is an inmate of a penal or correctional institution.
- I. The standards the foster care inspector shall use in judging the above criteria shall be those of the reservation Indian community.
- J. The foster care inspector is authorized to make a complete investigation to determine the adequacy of the foster care home. The inspector shall be authorized to examine not only the potential foster care parents, but also any other tribal member who is familiar with the applicants and is familiar with the type of care they provide to their children.

Section 4. The Foster Child:

- A. The daily routine of a foster child shall be such as to promote good health, rest and play habits.
- B. The responsibility for a child's health care shall rest with the foster parents. In case of sickness or accident to a child, immediate notice shall be given to the foster care inspector. Foster care parents may consent to surgery or other treatment in a medical emergency.
- C. The foster care parents shall not subject the child to verbal abuse, derogatory remarks about himself, his natural parents or relatives, or to threats to expel the child from the foster home. No child shall be deprived of meals, mail or family visits as a method of discipline. When discipline or punishment must be administered, it shall be done with understanding and reason. The method of punishment will be that which is accepted by the people of the Reservation Indian community.

CHAPTER 23 GUARDIANSHIP

Section 1. Purpose

- A. The children's court, when it appears necessary or convenient, may appoint guardians for the persons and/or property of either children under the court's jurisdiction or incompetents who have no guardian legally appointed by will or deed. Such appointment may be made on the petition of a relative or other person on behalf of the child or incompetent, or a petition of the child if at least fourteen (14) years of age. Before making such appointment, the court must cause such notice as the court deems reasonable to be given to any person having the care of the child, and to such other relatives of the child residing on the reservation as the court may deem proper, and in cases of adult incompetents, the court may cause notice to be given to the incompetent at least five (5) days before hearing the petition.

If a child is under the age of fourteen (14) years, the court may nominate or appoint his guardian. If he is fourteen (14) years of age or older, he may nominate his own guardian who, if approved by the court, must be appointed accordingly. If the guardian nominated by the child is not approved by the court, or if the child resides outside of the reservation, or if, after being duly cited by the court, he neglects for ten (10) days to nominate a suitable person, the court may nominate and appoint the guardian in the same manner as if the child were under the age of fourteen (14) years.

When a guardian has been appointed by the court for a child under the age of fourteen (14) years, the child, at any time after he attains that age, may nominate his own guardian, subject to the approval of the court. A guardian appointed may as specified by the court have the custody and care of the education of the child and the care and management of his property until such child arrives at the age of eighteen (18) marries, is emancipated by the court under Chapter 20 of this Title, or until the guardian is legally discharged, provided, however, that said guardian shall not have the authority, without express written consent of the court, to dispose of any real or personal property of the child in any manner, including, but not limited to, the child's Individual Indian Money Account. Said guardian shall also have the authority to consent to the medical care and treatment of the child.

The court may order that the court disburse monthly reimbursement payments to the person or agency to whom custody is granted under this Title, provided sufficient funds have been appropriated by the tribal council. Said disbursements must be used by the person or agency with custody of the child for the sole purpose of covering expenses incurred in the care and custody of said child and shall not be used for any other purpose. The use of said funds for any purpose other than that described in this section shall subject said person or agency to contempt of court and to any criminal and civil penalties or remedies provided by the tribal Title.

Section 2. Types of Guardianship

The types of guardianship shall include guardianship of property and/or guardianship of the person. Guardianship of the person shall include both temporary guardianship and permanent guardianship.

Section 3. Guardianship of Property

The court may appoint a guardian of the property of a child or incompetent person under such terms and conditions as the court sets forth in the written order. The guardianship may cover all property until the child reaches eighteen (18) years of age or until the incompetent person becomes competent or it may be limited to only specific property or a specific legal action as set forth in the written order. A temporary or permanent guardianship of the person may also include guardianship of the child's property if set forth in the written order.

Section 4. Permanent Guardianship

The court may appoint a permanent guardian for the child under such terms and conditions as the court sets forth in the written order. Permanent guardianship provides for permanent custody of a child to someone other than the parent(s), although there is no termination of the parental rights of the parents. There shall be a presumption of continued permanent guardianship in order to provide stability for the child. Permanent guardianship shall only be terminated based upon the unsuitability of the permanent guardian(s) rather than the competency or suitability of the parent(s). The parent(s) and the child's extended family shall be granted liberal visitation rights unless deemed inappropriate by the court.

Section 5. Temporary Guardianship

The court may appoint a temporary guardian under such terms and conditions as the court sets forth in the written order. A temporary guardianship may be terminated if the court determines that it is in the best interests of the child to change custody from the temporary guardian to a new guardian or to return the child to the parent, guardian or custodian. The parent(s) and the child's extended family shall be granted liberal visitation rights unless deemed inappropriate by the court.

Section 6. Who May File Guardianship Petition

Any person may file a petition for guardianship. The petition shall be initiated either by the proposed guardian or by the child if at least fourteen (14) years of age.

Section 7. Contents of Guardianship Petition

- A. The petition for guardianship shall include the following, to the best information and belief of the petitioner:
1. The full name, address and tribal affiliation of the petitioner;
 2. The full name, sex, date and place of birth, residence and tribal affiliation of the proposed ward;
 3. The basis for the court's jurisdiction;
 4. The relationship of the proposed guardian to the proposed ward;
 5. The name and address of the person or agency having legal or temporary custody of the proposed ward;
 6. The type of guardianship requested;
 7. In the case of alleged incompetent persons, the grounds for incompetency under Chapter 23, Section 11; and
 8. A full description and statement of value of all property owned, possessed, or in which the proposed ward has an interest (if guardianship of property is requested).

All petitions must be signed and dated by the petitioners, and must be notarized or witnessed by a clerk of the court.

Section 8. Guardianship Report

Upon the filing of a guardianship petition, the court shall immediately request that the social services department or other qualified agency conduct a guardianship report on the proposed guardian and report on the proposed ward. The guardianship report shall contain all pertinent information necessary to assist the court in determining the best interests of the proposed ward.

No determination can be made on a petition for guardianship until the report has been completed and submitted to and considered by the court. The guardianship report shall be submitted to the court no later than ten (10) days before the hearing. The court may order additional reports as it deems necessary.

Section 9. Guardianship Procedures

The procedures for guardianship hearings shall be in accordance with Chapter 11, Section 3 through Section 5; Chapter 12; Chapter 18 and Chapter 19 of this Title.

Section 10. Management of Property

- A. In the event that any guardian shall receive any money or funds of any child or incompetent person during his or her term of office as guardian, before taking and receiving into custody such money or funds, the court must require of such person a bond with sufficient surety to be approved by the court and in such sum as he shall order, conditioned that the guardian will faithfully execute the duties of his trust, and the following conditions shall form the part of such bond without being expressed therein:
1. To make an inventory of all the estate of his ward that comes into his possession or knowledge and to return the same within such time as the court may order, and;
 2. To dispose of and manage the estate according to law and for the best interests of the ward, and faithfully to discharge his trust in relation thereto, and also in relation to the care, custody and education of the ward, and;
 3. To render an account on oath of the property, estate and money of the ward in his hands and all the proceeds or interests derived therefor, and of the management and disposition of the same, within three (3) months after his appointment, and at such other times as the court directs, and at the expiration of his trust, to settle his accounts with the court or judge or with the ward if he be of full age, or his legal representative, and to pay over and deliver all the estate, monies and effects remaining in his hands, or due from him on such settlement to the person who is legally entitled thereto.

The funds of any child or incompetent must be used by his guardian solely for the support and education of such child and for the support of such incompetent, and shall be expended by the guardian in a reasonable manner according to the circumstances and station in life of such ward, and in such manner as can reasonably be afforded according to the income and estate of said ward.

If determined to be appropriate by the court, the written order may set forth that the child's property may not be used for the child's care, but rather to be managed for the child until the child reaches the age of eighteen (18) or is emancipated by the court.

Section 11. Incompetent Persons

In case of incompetent persons, if after a full hearing and examination upon such petition, and upon further proof by the certificates of at least two qualified physicians showing that any person is incompetent as defined in this Title, it appears to the court that the person in question is not capable of taking care of himself and of managing his property, such court must appoint a guardian of his person and estate within the powers and duties specified in this chapter.

Every guardian of an incompetent person appointed as provided herein has the care and custody of the person of his ward and the management of his estate until such guardian is legally discharged; he must give bond to such ward in like manner and with like conditions as before specified with respect to the guardianship of a child.

A person who has been declared insane or incompetent or the guardian, or any relative of Such person within the third degree or any friend, may apply by petition to the court in which he was declared insane, to have the fact of his restoration to capacity judicially' determined. The petition shall be verified and shall state that such person is then sane or competent. The court shall require notice to be given of a hearing upon said petition at some date after said petition has been filed; and at the hearing upon said petition, witnesses shall be examined and a determination made by the court as to whether the petition should be granted and the insane or incompetent person be declared of sound mind and capable of taking care of himself and his property, his restoration to capacity shall be adjudged and the guardianship of such person, if such person shall not be a child, shall cease.

CHAPTER 24 TERMINATION OF PARENTAL RIGHTS

Section 1. Purpose

The purpose of this chapter is to provide for the voluntary and involuntary termination of the parent/child relationship and for the substitution of parental care and supervision by judicial process. This chapter shall be construed in a manner consistent with the philosophy that all parties shall be secured their rights as enumerated in the Indian Civil Rights Act of 1968 and that the family unit is of most value to the community and the individual family members when that unit remains united and together, and that termination of the parent-child relationship is of such vital importance that it should be used only as a last resort when, in the opinion of the court, all efforts have failed to avoid termination and it is in the best interests of the child concerned to proceed under this chapter.

Section 2. Grounds for Involuntary Termination:

A. Abandonment.

If the parent has not contacted the child by telephone, letter or in person, or provided any financial support for more than one (1) year without a break, or have had only marginal contacts for fifteen (15) out of the latest twenty-four (24) months, a presumption shall exist that there is no parental relationship existing. The burden shall then be up to the parent to provide that such a relationship does exist. The evidence necessary to rebut this presumption may include, but shall not be limited to, information about efforts to maintain the parent-child relationship, including a showing of regular visits, telephone calls, letters, other contacts, or monetary support.

B. Physical Injuries.

Willful and repeated physical injuries.

C. Sexual Abuse.

Willful and repeated acts of sexual abuse or sexual exploitation.

D. Emotional Harm.

The return of the child may result in serious permanent emotional damage as support by the best evidence available in the field of child development.

Section 3. Pre-Filing Requirements.

A. A petition seeking involuntary termination of the parent-child relationship must establish the following:

1. The child has been found to be an abandoned or neglected child for at least a one year period of time, and has been removed from their parent at the time of this termination hearing for a period of one year or more;
2. The court has entered an order which states what the parent was required to accomplish to correct their underlying problem(s);
3. The social service agency involved has made a good faith attempt to offer or provide all court ordered and/or necessary services that are reasonably available in the community and which are capable of helping the parent resolve his or her underlying problem(s);

4. There is little likelihood the conditions will be remedied so that the child can be returned to the parents in the near future;
5. Continuation of the parent-child relationship clearly diminishes the child's prospects for successful placement into a permanent and stable home; and
6. Not returning the child to their parent is the least detrimental alternative that can be taken.

Section 4. Who May File Termination Petition

- A. A petition may be filed by:
 1. Either parent when termination is sought with respect to the other parent.
 2. The juvenile presenter.
 3. Any other person possessing a legitimate interest in the matter.
 4. A parent may file a petition for the voluntary termination of his parental rights.

No parental rights may be terminated unless a petition has first been filed, notice has been given, and a hearing held in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

Section 5. Contents of Termination Petition

- A. The petition for termination of parental rights shall include the following to the best information and belief of the petitioner:
 1. The name, place of residence and tribal affiliation of the petitioner (if other than juvenile presenter);
 2. The full name, sex, date and place of birth, residence and tribal affiliation of the child;
 3. The basis for the court's jurisdiction.
 4. The relationship of the petitioner to the child, or the fact that no relationship exists;
 5. The names, addresses, tribal affiliation, and dates of birth of the child's parents;

6. Where the child's parent is himself a child, the names and addresses of the parents' parents or guardian; and where the parent has no parent or guardian, the members of the parent's extended family.
7. The name and address of the person or agency having legal or temporary custody of the child;
8. The grounds on which the termination is sought under Chapter 24, Section 2 of this Title (unless voluntary termination);
9. A statement that the pre-filing requirements set forth in Chapter 24, Section 3 of this Title have been met (unless voluntary termination), and;
10. A list of the assets of the child together with a statement of the value thereof.

When any of the facts required by this section are unknown, the petition shall so state. The petitioner shall sign and date the petition.

Section 6. Notice

After a petition for the involuntary termination of parental rights has been filed, the court shall set the time and place for hearing and shall cause notice thereof to be given to the petitioner, the parents of the child, the guardian of the person of the child, the person having legal custody of the child, and the child's extended family as determined by the court.

Where the child's parent is himself a child, notice shall also be given to the parent's parents or guardian of the person unless the court is satisfied, in exercise of its discretion, that said notice is not in the best interest of the parent and that it would serve no useful purpose.

Notice shall be given by personal service. If service cannot be made personally, the court may authorize service by registered mail at the last known address of the person to be served. If notice cannot be served by registered mail, the court may authorize service by publication in either the tribal newspaper of the reservation, or a newspaper of general circulation in the county where the court is located, once a week for three consecutive weeks. All notices served whether personally or by registered mail shall be received by the person named therein no less than ten (10) days prior to the date set for the hearing. No hearing can be held sooner than ten (10) days after the last publication where service is made.

Notice and appearance may be waived by a parent in writing before the court in the presence of, and witnessed by, a clerk of the court, in the presence of, and witnessed by, a clerk of the court, provided that such parent has been apprised by the court of the meaning and consequences of the termination action. The parent who has executed such a waiver shall not be required to appear at the hearing. Where the parent is a minor, the waiver shall be effective only upon approval by the court.

Section 7. Pre-Termination Report

Upon the filing of a petition under this chapter for the involuntary termination of parental rights, the court shall request that the social services department or other qualified agency prepare and submit to the court a report in writing. The report shall be submitted to the court no later than ten (10) days before the hearing with copies given to the parents. The purpose of the report is to aid the court in making a determination on the petition and shall be considered by the court prior thereto. The court may request additional reports where it deems necessary.

The report shall include the circumstances of the petition, the investigation, the present condition of the child and parents, proposed plans for the child, and other such facts as may be pertinent to the parent and child relationship, and the report submitted shall include a recommendation and the reasons therefore, as to whether or not the parent and child relationship should be terminated.

Section 8. Relinquishment of Parental Rights (Voluntary Termination of Parental Rights)

Parental rights may be relinquished (voluntarily terminated) by a parent in writing, if signed by the parent in the presence and with approval of the court. Relinquishment shall not be accepted or acknowledged by the court prior to ten (10) days after birth of the child. The court shall ensure that the parent understands the consequences of the voluntary termination prior to approving it. A parent who wishes to relinquish his parental rights shall be provided an interpreter if he does not understand English.

Section 9. Hearing Procedures

The procedures for termination of parental rights hearings shall be in accordance with sections Chapter 14, Section 2 through Section 5 of this Title.

Section 10. Burden of Proof

The burden of proof lies with the petitioner to prove that the allegations in the termination petition are supported by clear, cogent and convincing evidence, and that the best interests of the child will be served by termination of parental rights.

Section 11. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

The court will make formal findings of fact and conclusions of law as a basis for the written order terminating the parent-child relationship.

Section 12. Result of Termination Order

Upon the termination of parental rights, all rights, powers, privileges, immunities, duties and obligations including any rights to custody, control visitation or support existing between the child and parent shall be severed and terminated unless otherwise directed by the court. The parent shall have no standing to appear at any future legal proceeding concerning the child. Any support obligation existing prior to the effective date of the order terminating parental rights shall not be severed or terminated. The rights of one parent may be terminated without affecting the rights of the other parent. A termination order shall not prevent a child from inheriting property or interest in the same manner as any other natural child from the natural parent. A natural parent may not, however, inherit from a natural child after termination.

Section 13. Child's Continued Right to Benefits

An order terminating the parent-child relationship shall not disentitle a child to any benefit due the child from any third person, agencies, state or the United States, nor shall any action under this Title be deemed to affect any rights and benefits that the child derives from the child's descent from a member of a federally recognized Indian tribe.

Section 14. Custody After Termination Order

If upon entering an order terminating the parental rights of a parent there remains no parent having parental rights, the court shall commit the child to the custody of a social services agency for the purpose of placing the child for adoption, or in the absence of an adoptive home the agency may place the child in a licensed foster home or with a relative, or take other suitable measures for the care and welfare of the child. The custodian shall have the authority to consent to the adoption of the child, the marriage of the child, the enlistment of the child in the armed forces of the United States, necessary surgical and other medical treatment for the child and consent to such matters as might normally be required of the child's parent.

Section 15. Future Review Hearings

If a child has not been adopted or permanently placed within six (6) months of the termination order, another six (6) month review hearing will be held. Such six (6) month hearings will continue until the child is adopted or permanently placed.

CHAPTER 25 ADOPTIONS

Section 1. Open Adoptions

- A. Adoptions under this Title may be in the nature of "Open Adoptions." The purpose of such open adoptions is not to permanently deprive the child of connections to, or knowledge of, the child's natural family. The purpose of adoptions shall be to give the adoptive child a permanent home. To this and the following shall apply and be contained in all adoptive orders and decrees:

1. The adoptive parents and adoptive child shall be treated under the law as if the relationship was that of a natural child and parent, except as set forth herein.
2. The adoptive child shall have an absolute right, absent a convincing and compelling reason to the contrary, to information and knowledge about his natural family and his tribal heritage.
3. The adoptive child and members of the child's natural extended family (including parents) may have a right of reasonable visitation with each other, subject to reasonable controls of the adoptive parents.
4. Adoption shall not serve to prevent an adoptive child from inheriting from a natural parent in the same manner as any other natural child. The natural parents shall not be entitled to inherit from an adoptive child in the same manner as parents would otherwise be entitled to inherit. An adoptive child shall be entitled to inherit from adoptive parents, and vice versa, in the same manner as if natural parents and child.

 5. The child, if he is over twelve (12) years of age.

Section 4. Executive of Consent to Adopt

Written consent to an adoption shall be executed and acknowledged before the court. Consent shall not be accepted or acknowledged by the court prior to ten (10) days after birth of the child. An interpreter shall be provided if the person consenting to the adoption does not understand English. Consents of a child over the age of twelve (12) years shall be made orally either in open court, or in chambers with only the judge and any other person(s) he deems necessary, and the child present.

Section 5. Who May File An Adoption Petition

Any person may file a petition for adoption. The petition shall be initiated by the person proposing to adopt. In the case of married persons maintaining a home together, the petition shall be the joint petition of husband and wife, except that if one of the spouses is the natural or adopted parent of the proposed adoptee, said parent shall not be required to join in the petition.

7. The names and addresses of any person or agency whose consent to aid adoption is necessary.

Where there is more than one proposed adoptee, and these proposed adoptees are siblings, only one petition shall be required for the adoption of all or any combination of the siblings, provided that each sibling proposed to be adopted be named in the petition.

All petitions must be signed and dated by the petitioner, and must be notarized or witnessed by a clerk of the court.

The homestudy and report shall relate the circumstance of the home, the petitioner and his ability, both physical and mental, to assume the responsibilities of a parent of the child. The homestudy shall contain other pertinent information designed to assist the court in determining the best placement for the child. The homestudy will also address the issue of whether or not the home most closely resembles that of the child's culture, identity, and where applicable, his tribal affiliation. The homestudy or report shall not be required where the proposed adoptee is an adult.

No determination can be made on a petition for adoption until the homestudy and report has been completed and submitted to and considered by the court. The homestudy shall be submitted to the court no later than ten (10) days before the hearing. The homestudy and report may be consolidated into one document. The court may order additional homestudies or reports as it deems necessary.

Section 9. Withdrawal of Consents

Any consent given under the provisions of this chapter may be withdrawn by the person or agency which gave the consent at any time prior to the entry of a final decree of adoption. No reason need be stated and no hearing need be held on such withdrawal.

All withdrawals must be in writing and notarized or witnessed by a clerk of the court, with the original being filed with the court.

Within two (2) years after the entry of a decree of adoption, said decree may be vacated upon a petition being filed and a showing that the consent which made the adoption possible was obtained through fraud or duress. Upon such a showing the court shall vacate the decree and return the adopted person to that status he had prior to entry of the decree.

Section 10. Adoption Preferences

- A. The preference of placement in adoption shall be in the following order unless the court determines that the child's best interests require deviation from the preferences:
1. Extended family member;
 2. A tribal member or person eligible for tribal membership;
 3. Other Indian person(s), and;
 4. If this order of preference cannot be met, then placement may be made with any person who has some knowledge of the child's tribal affiliation and his special needs.

If the court is satisfied that the adoption will not be in the child's best interest, or finds that all of the requirements of this chapter have not been met, it may deny the petition and make any other order it deems necessary for the care and custody of the child not inconsistent with this Title.

Proceedings for termination of the parent-child relationship and proceedings for adoption may be consolidated and determined at one (1) hearing provided that all the requirements of this chapter as well as chapter 26 of this Title governing termination are complied with fully.

The hearing shall be informal in nature. Concerned parties may present evidence relating to the situation. Hearsay evidence will not be excluded from the proceedings. Only the parties, their counsel, witnesses, the child's extended family and other persons determined to be appropriate by the court shall be admitted.

Section 12. Adoption Decree

If the court finds that the requirements of this chapter have been met and that the child's best interests will be satisfied, a final decree of adoption may be entered.

If the Court does not enter a final Decree of Adoption at the time of the hearing for adoption, but places the child in the legal custody of the petitioners, within six (6) months after the child has been in the custody of the petitioner, the child placement agency shall file a supplementary written record as to the welfare of the child, the current situation and conditions of the adoptive home and the adoptive parents.. If the Court is satisfied that the interests of the child are best served by the proposed adoption, a final Decree of Adoption may be entered. to the Court that the adoption is in the best interests of the child. In any case where the Court finds that the best interests of the child will not be served by the adoption, a guardian shall be appointed and suitable arrangements for the care of the child shall be made and the Court may request tribal agencies or federal agencies or other agencies authorized to provide such services to assist in the placement and the care of the child.

A person, when adopted, may take the name of the person adopting, and the two shall thenceforth sustain toward each other the legal relation of parent and child, and shall have all the rights and shall be subject to all the duties of that relation, including all of the rights of a child of the whole blood to inherit from any person, in all respects.
